Dear Mr. Lamb:

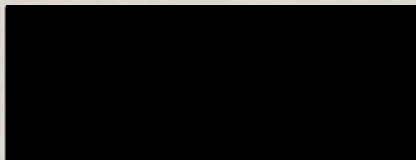

Recently, I attended the Washington Close Up program for the first time with a group of students. I was extremely impressed with the quality of instruction the students received; it was better than I had hoped or expected. My students came back from Washington intellectually invigorated and eager to talk with others about what they learned.

I think Close Up is an excellent program, and I want to express my thanks for the support you and the rest of C-SPAN have given it. We hope to make further use of the Close Up on C-SPAN programs during this coming year as we prepare another group to go to Washington.

I would also like to thank you for everything else C-SPAN does as well. I used a number speeches from the three candidates during the last election in my Honors Government class. I think the opportunity to see an entire speech rather than just a few sound bites was invaluable in helping them form clear and independent opinions about the candidates.

Again, thank you for everything.

Sincerely,
