Dear SWS:

I just am compelled to write and tell you how much I have learned from + enjoyed CSPAN - especially Booknotes, D-DAY coverage + interviews prior to the D-DAY coverage, the Nixon funeral coverage, the 4 way conversation - Brian Lamb, David McCullough, George Will and David Halberstam (which I just watched).

I appreciate the style ⁱⁿ which Brian Lamb interviews, and strangely enough, the only interviewer I really admired prior to seeing Mr Lamb, was Bob Costas - because he gets out of the way when he interviews but yet adds so much to the interview. It's an actual living breathing conversation, which is rare to hear.

, in the health field, have a BS degree - but have gotten more enlightened + excited about reading, learning history ^{etc} now, from the conversations on your program, than ever when I was in school. As an adult I ~~was~~ ^{was} missing a richness of ideas that I would not have gotten if it were not for your programs - Please do more + more + more!

This is just a scratched note, but if I waited to make it perfect I would never get it sent. Thank you so much.

Sincerely,
