Good Afternoon Brian Lamb,

C-SPAN is the best thing that's happened for our country and also the earth.

I hear truth on C-SPAN and thank you. Booknotes is always enlightening. And as I watch the news from Moscow, I know that the Russian people get virtually the same news as we do. We are much more alike than different.

One thing I really know now, is that the politicians are skilled at sounding great while saying nothing. Same is true of many of the media people. When Maya Angelo spoke she shared lasting truth. C-SPAN has helped open my ancient ears to knowing truth when I hear it.

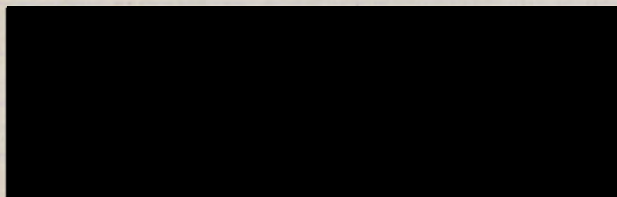

I wish you would have Noam Chomsky as a guest sometime. He is such a profound thinker.

Also Brian, I won't talk politics unless I've written to my representative and/or my senators on the subject. I'd be interested in seeing a report on how these people deal with the letters from their constituents. I know they can't read them all. I think it would be interesting to have your callers mention whether they write or not. I feel that it is a responsibility of the citizens to be informed and to communicate with government, national, state, & city.

Thank you for being CSPAN
