

Susan -

A caller called re: poll by a TEXAS con work overwhelmingly for impeachment. But you did her off & did not comment or ask your guest to comment (Breshahan)

But when the caller called next call complaining of all Republican infidelities you asked him to comment & also after the next woman called about Clinton already answered questions.

That you did not discuss the woman about the polls really disturbed me because there has been a big issue about the validity of these CNN - USA Today polls which we know do not go along with our local polls either.

Then a black woman called & said Graham & Republican were so terrible that "she was so scared" so then you asked your guest to "comment." Again it shown that after every liberal you ask them to comment - This was very obvious. I should tell Brian Hamb.

P.S. you did it again - A Veteran called - criticizing Clinton - draft dodger - pergerin - leer - & you had no comment & did not give the guest a minute to respond.

The next liberal from California said we should go on & Rep. look bad, you said "How do we go on." He said Censure - Again you show interest in every liberal call - Conservative calls just get passed over.

Again a Conservative caller said if Republicans "do right thing" they have no fear as they vote for their own party - except swing voters - you did not stop but went on to next caller. Count up how many in 10 minutes.

"You go right on" - you go right on - a caller asking "Again" -
