

Dear Brian - Your choice of wonderful Programs continues to delight and intrigue me. The Antiquarian Book Fair was an excellent example, and I'd have loved to have been there. There was, however, one serious flaw: Ann Lewis, whose sister is Barney Frank (D-MASS), was there and C-SPAN wasted several minutes listening to her left wing chatter. Please try to find some balance in choosing your next celebrity at a similar event! Maybe you could find Brent Bozell at one of these affairs or Robt. Bork! In any event, it was still a delightful & informative Fair. I look forward with great anticipation to C-SPAN's following Alexis De Tocqueville's travels in 1830 U.S. A great idea & thrilling to contemplate!

Ft. Bragg, CA. 95437

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY • 250TH ANNIVERSARY

O-BOOKS

Mr. Brian Lamb, C-SPAN, 400 N. Capitol
St. NW, Suite 650, Wash. D.C. 20001

Re: About Books, 3-29-97 Antiquarian Book Fair, Arlington, Va. Another delightful program from C-SPAN's wonderful menu.