You're continued practice of "offensive action" phone calls during a program (obviously under pressure from White House) - finds me leaving c-spon for info - for the 1st time since 1992 - during election - when I couldn't turn C-Spon off! Unfortunate - also - that you weren't able to stay as objective as promised - I find Brian looking more liberal all the time - especially when he gets involved in discussion with Republicans against Democrats! O.W. [REDACTED]
