You have spoiled our day by having Ann so — She is a smart aleck giggling through her mean spint, ^{ed}talk — at the same time slapping her hair back and forth out of her face and eyes. She couldn't say a word without it!!!

She is a nervous insecure person capitalizing on the bad and peddling it!

Can't we do better? ??

Sincerely,

Dear Brian, O-WS.

As I drew this sketch holding the brushes between my teeth, I kept humming,

"His Eye Is On The Sparrow."

This sparrow reminds me that if God is concerned about every detail that touches the life of a rag-tag little bird, think of how much more He cares about you and me!
