Dear Mr. Lamb:

I know C-SPAN tries to be as even handed as possible. However every time I see Steve Scully his partisan Republicanism is very ~~very~~ obvious. For example on your Washington Journal Segment Mr. Scully with the thousands of news articles to chose from always choses an Anti Clinton article usually from an obscure source. For example today he chose to highlight an obscure article about Susan McDougal. Then he gratuitously quoted James McDougal as stating that Susan McDougal had an affair with Clinton. However Scully neglected to mention that McDougal is not a reliable source - because ^{he} is psychotic - & takes medication for manic depression & organic brain syndrome. Also that Susan McDougal denied her ex-husbands allegations.

(S.W.)

I could see from the expression on John Palmer's face that he thought that hi Scully's comments were inappropriate. Because Scully is on CSPAN he should try to Reign in he obvious pro Republican Anti Clinton bias.

Sincerely,
