Dear Sirs,

First of all, I can't begin to tell you how much I value C-Span and how much I am learning through the great programming of C-Span; especially so is the case for a newly naturalized American who did not grow up and live all my life in the wonderful United States. Added to that of course my great interest in politics and you do fulfill all my curiosity and my desire to learn a lot.

I have ordered from you in the past the directory about members of Congress which I find very informative and an excellent source. My question is to know if you have a similar booklet about members of the Senate with their addresses and so forth. If so, please send it to me and bill me accordingly. Payment will be forwarded promptly.

Thank you again and again for making C-Span available.

Sincerely yours,

certified Translator
