Dear Mr. Collins,

Unlike the lady who called "JRT" on December 4, I think George Stephanopoulos is charming, highly intelligent, very well informed on a wide range of subjects, and yet he shows a proper amount of humility.

But I do have one anxiety--will George in 4 to 8 years become as homely and as disagreeable as Marlin Fitzwater, or as flat and boring as Margaret Tutweiler? I do pray that working inside the Beltway won't squeeze the exuberance and joy out of Bill Clinton and his staff.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]

Mr. Bruce Collins
