Dear C. Span

C. Span is the best, I love it. I have an idea that might even improve it.

Now that the House has concurred, it seems there is one bill or amendment after another taking 15 minutes at least. Us poor old guys in the backwoods, and far from the beltway just don't get it.

During the fifteen minutes of vote I suggest, put it on for about 2 minutes then blank our TV screens, and either orally or written, explain what the Bill or the amendment is all about. The first 2 minutes would show how the vote started, then the explanation, leaving plenty of time to see the final vote.

Most people don't know what Amendments # So & So. is all about. This would sure clear things up for us. - Thanks for listening
