

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Contact: Monique Llanos
(202) 626-7975
Kim Shearin
(202) 626-6124

C-SPAN'S SPECIAL HOLIDAY PROGRAMMING

Washington, D.C., December 23, 1993 -- Starting on Christmas Day Saturday, December 25, C-SPAN will offer special programs for the holidays. The programs scheduled to air this weekend are:

- * Saturday, December 25, from 6:00 - 7:00 PM (ET)/3:00 - 4:00 PM (PT)
National Press Club luncheon speech by Vice President Al Gore (Re-air)
- * Saturday, December 25, from 7:00 - 9:00 PM (ET)/4:00 - 4:00 PM (PT)
"America and the Courts" will provide an update on the experiment allowing cameras in selected federal courts. The program will include panel discussions and interviews with supporters and opponents of cameras in the courts.
- * Sunday, December 26, beginning at 10:00 AM (ET)/7:00 AM (PT)
"An American Profile" re-airs; in-depth, 45-minute interviews with Rep. David Bonior (D-MI) and Rep. David Dreier (R-CA) in which they discuss their childhood, families and careers.
- * Sunday, December 26, from at 8:00-9:00 PM (ET)/5:00-6:00 PM (PT)
"Booknotes" this week features author Willard Sterne Randall discussing his book entitled Thomas Jefferson: A Life.
- * Sunday, December 26, from 9:00-9:30 PM (ET)/6:00-6:30 PM (PT)
"Update on British Politics" will include a roundtable discussion with Gary Waller, Conservative Party Member of Parliament and Andrew Bennett, Labour Party Member of Parliament

C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies. C-SPAN is currently available in 59.8 million households nationwide and worldwide.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Contact: Monique Llanos
(202) 626-7975
Kim Shearin
(202) 626-6124

C-SPAN'S SPECIAL HOLIDAY PROGRAMMING

Washington, D.C., December 23, 1993 -- Starting on Christmas Day Saturday, December 25, C-SPAN will offer special programs for the holidays. The programs scheduled to air this weekend are:

- * Saturday, December 25, from 6:00 - 7:00 PM (ET)/3:00 - 4:00 PM (PT)
National Press Club luncheon speech by Vice President Al Gore (Re-air)
- * Saturday, December 25, from 7:00 - 9:00 PM (ET)/4:00 - 4:00 PM (PT)
"America and the Courts" will provide an update on the experiment allowing cameras in selected federal courts. The program will include panel discussions and interviews with supporters and opponents of cameras in the courts.
- * Sunday, December 26, beginning at 10:00 AM (ET)/7:00 AM (PT)
"An American Profile" re-airs; in-depth, 45-minute interviews with Rep. David Bonior (D-MI) and Rep. David Dreier (R-CA) in which they discuss their childhood, families and careers.
- * Sunday, December 26, from at 8:00-9:00 PM (ET)/5:00-6:00 PM (PT)
"Booknotes" this week features author Willard Sterne Randall discussing his book entitled Thomas Jefferson: A Life.
- * Sunday, December 26, from 9:00-9:30 PM (ET)/6:00-6:30 PM (PT)
"Update on British Politics" will include a roundtable discussion with Gary Waller, Conservative Party Member of Parliament and Andrew Bennett, Labour Party Member of Parliament

C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies. C-SPAN is currently available in 59.8 million households nationwide and worldwide.