

Brian --- you can see I can't type too well so that may be why I wasn't much of a 1655....I wonder: did you attain 0-6 in the naval reserve, Pao? I would think so.

Your presence at the Cap Hist dinner was really good....

in interviews, you appear the same: intense and with honest, thorough, technique to come upon a proper answer.

But --- if this ol' PAO can do any thing ^{for} one still 'on active service' --- you are too glib and off-hand, witness your remarks at this banquet...and you remained, as fine introducer, to shake the hand of Sn Byrd, but you did not remain to greet Sen Baker...just a few things that aren't that small...you obviously have been doing well...now polish it up and slow down a bit...smile more...not during interviews, but do take care of yourself ... maybe less tense even with family.... I salute you, CEO, and your knowledge of people, their contributions and qualities you quite generously denoted these...with respect and prayers....
