Dear Mr. Lamb:

After watching your show this morning of Fri. March 25, The Journalists Round Table, I was prompted to write this letter. I really enjoyed the show as I always do when you have such an objective group of people discussing the issues in a civilized manner unlike some of the politically oriented shouting matches that are on right now.

The main point that I am writing to make is that you can not discuss WHITEWATER too much for my liking. I take exception to the few callers that you had this morning, saying that they were tired of hearing about Whitewater. I don't know what rock they crawled out from but everyone I have had contact with is totally consumed with finding out the TRUTH regarding Whitewater. Please do not let this hinder your coverage of this important issue that the American people are entitled to know in depth. C-Span is needed and has helped me to get a better perspective into how Government and the Press work.

My last point is that I was appalled at the ridiculous accusations of some of your callers towards Rush Limbaugh. STUPID TALK! Could he document that? If they don't like it then why do they listen? Obviously they do, even though they absolutely misquote and take him out of context. In my opinion Rush has done wonders for the American people and Government. With his search for the truth it is making very difficult for Slick Politicians and prevaricators like Bill Clinton to continue to deceive the innocent people of this country.

Thank You Mr. Lamb and continue your good work of no nonsense reporting.

Sincerely,
