Mr Lamb:

Is Washington Journal mostly/totally white? I think I noticed one of color removing microphone from guests. Having missed some of the shows, I missed JJ on my return sometime ago. Has he dismissed?

I've decided some of your callers are loners and can be real nasty. Some are allowed to talk forever when they are calling Clinton names and others are cut off, supposedly by mistake, if something is said in his favor. Yet some of the things you and your hosts/hostesses say make it sound partisan. You have one, male, that seems to worry about costs for Clinton for anything. Why?? What should not concern your callers is the host since he can't or rather he or they have nothing to do with federal budgets.

Am not a regular viewer of talk shows (TV) or radio because of the nastiness that comes across and there are so many know-it-alls but we all have our views. I don't care for your opinions and I wouldn't want you to settle on mind but we should be able to hold a conversation. Do you know how many are of presidential material and I've heard it said to you Mr Lamb "you should run". The person that said that will be the first to talk about you if a bill passed and it didn't help them. These formats should be changed. If I were ever able to get on, I'd be forced to use a few four letter words but when I say why I'm calling, that's the end. Morality is the thing of today.

It's been said ^{by} somebody that you are the male friend of one of your female host. Whose business is it or why would anybody care?

I did see Ann Coulter on the show and you can bet it was a disgrace. She has several titles and I don't believe she is a lawyer or journalist. And you run out of people? She should make a life for herself.

Heard on same program that George Will will be on. His vocabulary is too much (big) for this country. I am sure he thinks Sam and Coke, along with the world, are too dumb to understand him.

Your show can't last forever, so be prepared. When Clinton's term is over, lock up. The all real papers of some kind. Also your callers (loners) are dying out. These folks probably can't buy a loaf of bread but they pay for a call, get their coffee and cigarette and their day is complete. They call that entertainment.

Is anybody paid on your show?
