

O-BN

Aug 7, 1995

Booknotes

C. Span

Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr Lamb: —

The interview of one Marc Fisher on August 6 was a "bummer".

I don't simply understand C. Span giving him the "time-o-day" to peddle his garbage that voices a ~~Jewish~~ attitudes and opinions about pre-WWII Germans. In particular the era from 1933 through 1945 of German history. I would remind you and "fishin' fissure" Fisher that ~~Jewish~~ is not a noun, as is ~~Irish~~, but rather an adjective. Therefore, your allusion and Fisher's ~~Jewish~~ concurrence that he is Jewish is totally an untruth.

mostly, gentility-type gentiles shy away, purposely from calling a Jew a "Jew." There are connotations of anti-Semitism when "Jew" is used properly by gentiles. Jews desire to be addressed in adjective rather than noun formation, i.e. "Jewish" in lieu of "Jew." The exception to this detachment comes about when Jews address Jews. Have you not witnessed of which I candidly bespeak? Are you, too, not a victim well brainwashed?

Jews will continue mouth-ing a disclaim of older Germans. It sustains an agenda — a most lengthy one, a hateful one, a lucrative one. One that has risen to biblical heights in ~~Jews~~ Devotional Devise and monetary composite connivance.

You, Mr Hamer lend credence to substratum subtlety by ~~Jews~~ via softball questions and quavering queries and acceptable Fisher-type answers. Thus, more dilatory propaganda by a ~~Jew~~ is added to "bulging"
gentile files about persecution of ~~Jews~~ by Germans - or all non ~~Jews~~, for that matter.

Very truly yours

[Redacted Signature]

- Age 77

[Redacted Address]