Dear Mr. Lamb-Dear Sir:

Dear Sir- enclosed is a card that is supposed to be esoteric in understanding...seemingly...it causes concern in many for the different meaning it represents. To you-Mr. Lamb-Sir-...it might bring forth concerns that I have very little knowledge for other than the shared experience of watching you each Friday morning on Washington Journal 'only looking through a lonely TV'. With a heavy heart, I have conducted myself with a composure of great burden in the last three years. The card represents accomplishment that for me is sometimes difficult to fathom other than the contention it has stirred. 'I have struggled greatly' yet I am deeply grateful...deeply grateful for the knowledge of a sensitivity seen through my TV. My past of the 3 years (which the note partially represents) has been a change rooted in adventure that has concerns not only of myself but for those others involved that it affects. This gesture has meaning, but it is of great concern to me that it represents a frailty in interpretation other than the consequences of its interpretation. 'I am very happy to be able to write to you-Mr. Lamb-I am very happy to be able to write to you-'...I have had a very lonely and sometimes sad life...sometimes very sad and always very lonely'...I'm striving to change Mr. Lamb...I'm striving to change as quickly and as hard as I can while intensely frightened with no one to talk to. I hope this letter meets some compassion in you-Dear Sir-...I hope it meets a compassion I will never really know...but it is my burden to understand as much what the card represents meeting the necessity of the change that must be found in me in the days ahead. It is an intensely lonely- intensely lonely- and sometimes frightening experience (I'm crying right now as I write this)

The months and years ahead are rooted in an knowledge of great personal sadness for me and sometimes moments of great emotional pain...this pain has been daily in a numb sensation and I fear terribly that it represents a permanence far into the future or perhaps 'long enough' only with the knowledge that I have no one to talk to and 'I cannot change this'...There will probably be many tears into the future only with knowing that this will continue to be an intensely lonely and isolated experience.

I hope you can accept this card with a soft smile-Mr. Lamb-Sir...I hope that it understood in the understanding it represents. In the meantime, I will try to change 'as quickly as possible'...to do the best I can with a struggle ahead. I will see you on Friday mornings...through my TV...a TV that has meaning I'm not sure I understand except being viewed through a realm of change and concern.

Much love to you Mr. Lamb...much love to you-
