

SUNDAY JAN 24

C-Span -

O.W.R.

I realize how difficult it is to get a balanced presentation when the media in the USA are overwhelmingly on the left, but take care when having a media person appear, to follow with someone from the right, or else we get two Democrats in a row.

This morning, for example, you had Sandra Solieraj of AP who is on the left (check AP reporters, they tend to be very pro-Democrat Party) followed by Joe Andrews of the DNC.

There are very few Republicans working as reporters for the mainstream (so-called) media, print and electronic, so I know it makes it problematic to get spokespersons from "the media" to represent the Republican point of view. (it really concerns me when I see the people from the New York Times, the Washington Post, the Los Angeles Times, the Chicago Tribune, the Atlanta Journal-Constitution, the Baltimore Sun, the Dallas Morning News, the Boston Globe, the Miami Herald, et al, all presenting the pro-Democrat, anti-Republican version of people and events - they blanket the country with their ideologically-slanted news, that's scary!)

So...re-double your efforts to give your C-Span viewers a balanced presentation, will you?

I am a legal alien English-woman, and I read many publications and analyze their contents - it dismayes me to read some of the BLATANT anti-Republican reporting (there is much covert bias) which, I believe, brainwashes the American people into believing the Republicans are the scum of the Earth!

The recent Harry Fynt/Hustler, and David Talbot/Salon, and Steven Brice/Brice ^{Strong} Content, which attacked Republicans were very revealing, too, as our objective media said very a word. Remember how American Spectator and Ty-ree were SAVAGED?

Look at the laudatory treatment of Senator Byrd who supposedly cares so much about the Constitution when he announced his intention to call for a vote for dismissal before witnesses were called. That was RANK partisanship, but he's a Democrat so, of course, it is not partisan at all; it is simply statesmanlike and wonderful. Ugh, I get so frustrated I could chew nails!

Brooksville, FL.

P.S. How do Republicans ever get elected in America? When Jeb Bush ran for governor the first time, I think there was not one paper in this state which endorsed him? That is a fair representation of the people of Florida's political, and other, viewpoints? I know it isn't!

Of course, the isolationists and reporters, have STARTED already to lash
