Dear Mr. Thomas:

Recent Federal pronouncements have no doubt given you plenty of headaches and we understand you have to juggle many factors when deciding what channels to carry.

B U T

to reduce C-SPAN to daytime air-hours only is not a good choice.

For my money, the very reason for subscribing to cable in the first place is the availability of unbiased as-it-happens coverage and thoughtful evenhanded discussion of policy and events. C-SPAN is that and more. However, I need it at night.

We can do without three channels of shopping sleaze. But I do need one channel of C-SPAN and would like to have C-SPAN 2 while you're at it.

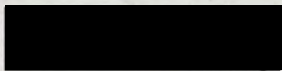

Thanks for your consideration in reconsidering this matter.

Emphatically,
