C-SPAN'S "ELECTION '90" FEATURES NORTH CAROLINA SENATE RACE

Program Also Looks At The Impact Of The Budget Debate on Incumbents

Washington, D.C., October 12 -- The North Carolina Senate race between incumbent Senator Jesse Helms (R) and former Charlotte Mayor Harvey Gantt (D) will be the focus on "Election '90" this Sunday, October 14, at 12:30 PM, 9:30 PM, and 12:30 AM (ET).

The 90-minute program includes coverage of this week's campaign appearances in Raleigh by both candidates. Senator Helms and President Bush addressed supporters at the Raleigh Civic Center on Wednesday, October 10, and Mr. Gantt addressed the Women's Club of Raleigh the same day. C-SPAN will air both these events in their entirety.

"Election '90" also takes a look at the new campaign commercials from this race, as well as ads from political contests across the country. Campaign spots from the Hawaii, Kentucky, Minnesota, Massachusetts, and Nebraska Senate races will air, as well as ads from the Illinois, Massachusetts, and Arizona governors' races.

In addition, the program will feature a discussion with Tom Oliphant of the Boston Globe and Steve Daley of the Chicago Tribune on the impact the budget debate will have on incumbents' chances on Election Day.

"Election '90," C-SPAN's weekly program focusing on the 1990 elections, provides viewers with comprehensive coverage of key House, Senate, and gubernatorial elections.

C-SPAN is available in 50.9 million households nationwide and around the world via satellite. The network is privately funded and is a public service of the cable television industry.
