Dear Brian Lamb et al:

C. Spax is a blessing to our nation and I use your theme music (what is it?) to wake up to very early each day.

Each of your hosts are class acts with great appeal and intelligence ~ with the exception of your new member: J.J. (??)

Sadly, I find myself not watching on Saturdays when he is on.

Were you pressurized by the NAACP or some other civil rights organization to hire him?

Not so much his skin color ~ but those eyes and the noticeable slowness!!

I'm so sorry you lowered the quality of excellence!
