Dear Mr. Lauch,

It is obviously distasteful to you to discuss the designated phone lines. However, I was so very glad that you did last week. Things seem a little clearer to me.

I thought you were going back to last week's phone lines after the election. I also thought C. Spaw was to bring unfettered opinions, unfettered observations of events etc. Now you say its balance. There is a tremendous difference between the two. While I was unable to hear all of Monday's discussion, at least now I understand where you are coming from. It is my belief that, in general, the Country is more conservative than liberal. Do you would expect more conservative calls.

It would be very interesting to me to hear a "behind the scenes" discussion your staff might have in deliberating this problem. I would love to know what your thinking is

Don't ever give up working these things out. I adore C-Span. If every American had to see the Congress in session and a few Senate - House hearings there would be no need for term limits. You are wonderful,

Sincerely,

Mr. Brian Lamb
