Dear C. Span,

Just a note to thank you for the complete coverage of Princess Diana's funeral on Saturday - as usual, by far the best of anything I've seen.

Enjoyed the coverage of Stockbridge, MA (an area I know well) on the de Toqueville tour. Don't be dismayed by any criticism. It is a wonderful idea to follow his trip and has been admirably carried out - Some people just don't want to learn anything - I am looking forward to the Boston stop.

Book notes continue my favorite. I wouldn't miss it! Particularly enjoyed Frank McCourt and Pauline Maier who were on recently. Have you considered a book called "Rising Tide" book on 1927 Mississippi Flood and its impact on U.S. history and politics. Very well written and interesting.
