Dear C-SPAN:

I just wanted to drop you a short note expressing my delight at the recent programming you have shown on the British House of Commons. The election coverage was good, although I admit I was a little disappointed that election night coverage was pre-empted by live coverage of Congress (that is your purpose for being, isn't it ? ! ?). The extended coverage with the call in program for the State Opening of Parliament was very good also. The conversation and interviews with those knowledgeable of the British system add a lot to your broadcasts.

Keep up the good work! I look forward to watching your continuing Sunday evening broadcasts and additional special programs.

Sincerely,
