

To C-Span

25 Feb. 1992

Attention Angela P. Hunter (Viewer Info Dept.)

Ms. Hunter, you responded to my letter to C-Span concerning the knowledge that former ^{U.S. House} Speaker James Wright was teaching 'government' on C-Span in The Classroom.

My dear lady, whether you hire Mr. Wright or not (that is, pay wages) is not the question I wished to bring forward in my prior letter of Jan 2, 1992!

The problem is that Mr.
Wright was forced to leave his high government position because of several questionable acts of his. I and many citizens believed he would be tried for these ^{in court}.

Now, we find him teaching at his former alma mater (I believe) in Fort Worth, TX. That is the problem. Now it would seem.

But to be presented across our country in the high office of a teacher to our children, and on the subject of government yet, is nothing but to reward for his prior actions - actions so odious as to compel his (our 2/ resignation from office!!

Surely you see this point I am trying to make!
Our young people should not be exposed to the obvious fact that wrong is rewarded that Spain is putting forth each and every time Mr. Wright appears.

I have no doubt he is a "good teacher" for he is a skilled politician of many years and is a "good talker" (no doubt of that!)... Hence he could not talk his way out of his problems in the Congress!

So, in my opinion, dear lady, Mr. Wright is an inappropriate selection & I'm sure there must be other teachers you can select from to fill this important position.

Thank you for your reply once again.

Sincerely
[REDACTED]

P.S. I am a grandmother and a grandma and I know how important "Role Models" are! Our children should have the best teachers. To be "best" means no blemish on their record. Mr. Wright teaching "Government" is a travesty!
[REDACTED]