Suspended jail guard is arrested

JERSEY CITY — A suspended Bergen County corrections officer was arrested here last night after he failed to appear in court to answer heroin and official misconduct charges, Undersheriff Martin Budinick said.

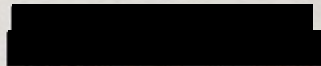

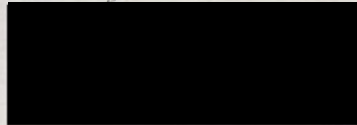

Three sheriff's detectives arrested Brian Lamb, 27, "without incident" at his Manhattan Avenue home about 8:45 p.m., Budinick said.

Lamb was originally arrested last April 10 on charges he tried to buy 15 bags of heroin at the Marion Gardens housing project here. He was immediately suspended from his job at the Bergen County Jail in Hackensack.

No bail had been set last night.
