Dear Mr. Brian Lamb,

Compliments to you and your staff on the fine service you are providing the American people. I especially enjoy your Book Section and your live programs from legislative and executive branches of government and other meetings and panels.

I have one comment concerning your call-in segments and I realize that you are not responsible for the situation and you could not control it even if ^{you} wanted to.

It seems to me that a preponderance of your calls come from conservatives who love to hate President Clinton for real or imaginary reasons. Honest disagreement about policies and programs are one thing but hate and misinformation generated by the Rush Limbaughs and Pat Robertsons which then appear on your call-ins do not serve our nation well.

In closing I would like to recommend "America: Who Pays The Taxes" by Bartlett and Steele to your Book Section. They are a couple of real reporters who really address American problems unlike the gossip mongers

(over)

in the Washington and New York press.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

P.S.

I do not recall the group that the President and Garrison Keillor addressed
last week, but I'm curious about why it was not carried on C-SPAN and if I missed it, will it be carried again.
