Dear Sirs/Ms's/Mrs./WHATEVER:

A blessing on my gourd, having--finally--watched/listened to the programming on C-SPAN--cable TV, channel 28, ou'chere in cow-patty country, Dodge City, Kansas.

Just had a 'go' with a number of journalists who were being honored with questions from call-in citizens concerned about the Persian Gulf scenario...good questions, some fair-to-middlin' answers, indeed...I was gonna get another earful of them folks a 'doin' their thing--"The Keating 5"--but real glad I opted for them--there media 'experts'...No offense meant, please...but I got ME a thing about the news media/politicians-n-such...got the answer to everything, and don't know s--- about nothin'.

Well now...I know bettern you, I am somewhat(?) radical, and too, rebellious. But at 61-years young, with a passle of yuk-yuks in my past, I'm elated to be able to let go with a salvo of my own--'off-the-wall'--RE-marks!...and I thank-ee!...and I do NOT expec a Pulitzer for my painful prose...deeply honored tho', should you read through this E-pistle...get ON with it--

Being of that age that begins to see things dimly--in the shade--so to speak, I have the eerie feeling that I've witnessed the happenings, to date, somehow/somewhere in the forgotten past...have you experienced that?...flashbacks!?...mebbe!??

Yessirreebob...with the punching their OWN ticke sit still and debate the issue tohell-n-gone! At the first sign--the smallest sign--of aggression from their cent uries-old enemy, (Arab) nations, and the defacation hits the oscillator...(there now, I was gentle/soft-spoken!)

An American/Iraqi war? A waste of our most valuable resource--young, human life...the body-bag count would be a guess, at this point, and there doesn't have to be any horrible count of American bodies...not at this time in history.

I'd bet my life on the Israeli response...and they'll do it quickly, with finality. No political debates...no media debates...no limp-wristed word-debates, in ANY form.

Just an all-out cry of "NO MORE, NEVER AGAIN!"...and they will sweep the area clean of the greed that permeats the Arab nations.

Who knows...mebbe...just mebbe...we, as a wonderfully free(?) nation, will finally take a gander at our very own greedy way of living...it would be refreshing, to say the least...

And I be--at last--out of gas! If you've gotten this far, agin, thank-ee!

Sincerely,

Dodge City, KS.

Just had a 'go' with a number of journalists who were being honored with questions from call-in citizens concerned about the Persian Gulf scenario...good questions, some fair-to-middlin' answers, indeed...I was gonna get another earful of them folks a'doin' their thing--"The Keating 5"--but real glad I opted for them--there media 'experts'...No offense meant, please...but I got ME a thing about the news media/politicians-n-such...got the answer to everything, and don't know s--- about nothin'.

Nope...never snorted/sniffed/shot/smoked dope...but I have had a number of experiences with old JohnBarleycorn...great lover of old J.B., I was...and ain't had a snort of him in five years...he thrashed me right smart-like, he did.

Meanwhile, lemme run this by you: I think 'Read My Lips' oughter order the troops back home, lock/stock/barrel included...gee whiz...I can hear the savor-rattlers from here-to-there! 'YOU DAMNED FOOL! WE GOTTA GET SADDAM, AND GET HIM NOW!!' What THEM damned fools ain't a 'lookin' at is...ISRAEL!

Friend, make no mistake about it, the rest of the world--including US--are a bunch of wet noodles, compared to the Israeli's. They have--as a people--been hammered almost to extinction...and they'll be hammered no-more, praise God!

So...pull the troops...now...them A-rabs are sure to join hands and all the 'rag-heads' will turn towards Israel with lip-smackin' zeal and make-ready to pounce!!

Yessirreebob...with the first glance at their nemisis, Israel, they will have begun punching their OWN ticket to Hell. Why/how? Simple, and swift. The Jews ain't gonna sit still and debate the issue tohell-n-gone! At the first sign--the smallest sign--of aggression from their centuries-old enemy, (Arab) nations, and the defacation hits the oscillator...(there now, I was gentle/soft-spoken!)

An American/Iraqi war? A waste of our most valuable resource--young, human life...the body-bag count would be a guess, at this point, and there doesn't have to be any horrible count of American bodies...not at this time in history.
