Dear CSPAN,

I am awaking getting my typewriter out to send this letter, but today I decided I definitely had to take action and use my hand to write this letter today.

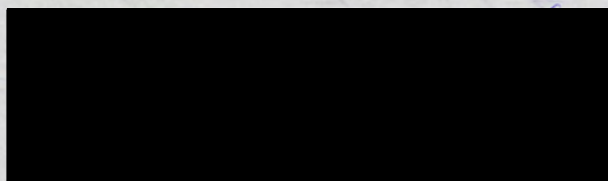

I am a CSPAN addict - all day long. If I didn't have CSPAN I would drop my cable.

My problem, which has upset me for months and months, is that when I see or listen to someone on T.V., CSPAN always prints the name, organization or political party (R, D) on the bottom of the screen. Most of the time the D, R is so close to the left edge I cannot decipher the political party. Couldn't you, PLEASE, move the R or D a couple inches to the right? It would be easier to read and stop the confusion as I listen to the people speak.

I would appreciate it.

thanks,
