Dear Mr. Lamb:

By now, no doubt you and the staff of C-Span have received accolades for the wonderful address of Judge Roy Moore from New Hampshire on Saturday night, October 3, 1998. If not, shame on your televiewers.

Judge Moore's address was almost a re-run of my life, everything from education to religion to morality. Somewhere in our vast country, surely there is a real man in an official corporate official capacity who would be very amenable as well as financially constructed that the C-Span address of Judge Moore could be given or donated to a national TV network. The United States of America needs to be re-awakened by the patriotic words of this great speaker.

Decidedly, this subject matter needs to be said again and again, preferably by His Honor Roy Moore! Thank you, C-Span.

Sincerely and with respect,
