Dear Brian,

It's almost impossible to get C-Spon on the phone during your Washington Journal so I resort to this short note. First, I thank you for all the great things on C-Spon especially the Tocqueville tour. Also, the Bookmaster here sent me to the book store many times. I am so appreciative. I have the Tocqueville in American book by Pierson and I could put it down. In telling my family to check out C-span for an education, I know I get one every time I watch.

The booknote on Ernie Pyle's war was a great one. I started to sob when the author told about the piece about the captain of a rifle company being brought down from the mountain after he was killed.
I was a tanker with the [REDACTED] Infantry Division and started the "little bit of heaven" at Normandy on "D" day. It shocked me back to memories when he told about it. Actually, I loved on that beach every day of my life for years after. Old age mercifully dulls Memories after a while. I didn't intend this thing to go on so long.

(this note) but once I start it's almost impossible to stop - I hope I didn't bore you. Thanks again for your wonderful service to this country.

Respectfully -
