Dear Brian,

I see we are to be blessed with another several hours about the Rhodes Scholarship program at Oxford, a la Bill Clinton and his illustrious post graduate times.

Not people are in awe of this program. If you understood the philosophy of Cecil Rhodes and its direct influence on the British and European Keynesian economic theories, you have to shudder when you realize we, <sup>will</sup> get this for our country even though we do not need it.

Britain, and other areas, yet we will probably get it free - blast hell. Hallelu-sod!

I'm sick of hearing about the Rohrer scholars, and, especially our Bill Clinton, not even half of this country voted for this very liberal person, and yet we have C-SPAN devoting hours and hours to it. I would expect it of CNN - but I will have to tune you out! I've enjoyed so much of C-SPAN - but I will not listen to this indoctrination to our people. We do not need socialist's economic help - it does not work in
