Dear Brian,

Just listened to the 2nd caller harshly attack the Sat airing of "the American Spectator". I taped it & listened to it yesterday. I don't think C-SPAN irresponsible - I was glad it was on,

I haven't monitored C-SPAN, but seems even-handed & I think you-all work at it.

I have become a regular listener since last October.

I have been puzzled about time given to the Moscow news program - primetime for those working.

Pres. Clinton was harshly criticizing Pres. Bush for only caring about foreign policy, not the American people (which of course was not true) - & here we have, 2 1/2 hrs daily, Moscow news program. I listened once & had a hard time concentrating - I realize the cold war ended historical & the "fall" important. It just seems that American issues & candidates more important than.
