

[REDACTED]
lace

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] san francisco 94109

18 July 92

C-SPAN I & II
444 N. Capitol St 412
Wash DC 20001

Dear person(s) —

Thank you for your services: they make me rich. I'm a sociopathic lacemaker whose works are museum-tested (as it were: I have 11 pieces in Yrup & American museums). Bobbin lace. Crocheted lace. Knitted lace. Late 20th, early 21st Century lace. One sits for hours and hours upon hours to make lace: weeks, months, years! I spit on commercials and commercial tv (even CNN).

But! : making lace and watching the future become present and pass into the past while I whirl rounds, mandalas, tapes, unknown things from my dna through my fingers into my lace is the acme of experiences. I've spent 3 terms (6 yrs) in the House and 1 year in the Senate. I've cried; I've hated; I've been shocked; I've been overjoyed. I feel I know where I am, wherever this is. And my lace gets better & better.

Art therapy? Indeed. But more: a new Social therapy! There is only C-SPAN for this.

Thank you especially, Susan & Brian, for the unedited coverage of the Conventions. For your Booknotes. Your blue eyes. And your unwavering standard of impartial conduct with the clan never found in politicians!

Sincerely,

no reply necessary
(unless you have time...)
(which you can't possibly have...)

