Re: Moscow News 1.

Please give us a break!

News One is on C-SPAN 1 at 6 pm EST...sometimes, especiall when Congress has adjourned.

News One is on C-SPAN 2 at 8 pm EST...sometimes.
For a while I thought it was never on, on Fridays. Tonight, it was! (?) Once, I got the idea that it would be on C<sub>2</sub>SPAN 2 every night at 6 pm MST.

I liked that! I didn't have to call you every night and run up my phone bill to find out when it would be shown. I refuse to do this...especially because if I never have had the chance ...ever...to call in and get on the line...I never will get in to find out that New One won't be on tonight!

Please give me a break!

Then when it is shown, you put those big yellow boxes on the screen to tell me when something or other will be shown later.

1. I have never seen such a box telling me about News One's time.
2. It is so distracting I miss some of the "flavor" and details when News One is on:

A woman talks, a man talks, another man talks, images are going past my eyes (once, a truck was seen moving in reverse!), with only one voice in English. As I try to figure out which images go with which message in English, you flash those damn little yellow boxes to confuse me further!

Please give me a break!

Couldn't you really give us News One at 9 & midnight EST?... Which would be 7 & 11 MST...6 & 10 pm West Coast Time.

That way I could work in a little political work in the evenings, too!
