C-SPAN'S "BOOKNOTES": BACKGROUND AND UPCOMING PROGRAMS

Washington, D.C., March 1, 1993--Every Sunday, at 8:00-9:00 PM/ET, C-SPAN airs "Booknotes," an hour-long interview with the author of a recent book on public affairs. Viewers meet the person behind the book, and learn about the latest ideas on economics, politics, history, foreign policy, and other issues of national interest.

Since "Booknotes" launched on April 2, 1989, over 200 authors have appeared. The first was Zbigniew Brezinski, national security advisor to President Carter, who discussed his book "The Grand Failure: The Birth & Death of Communism in the 20th Century." More recently, C-SPAN interviewed Albert Gore and Robert Reich, before they moved on to positions of national leadership.

Some of the other prominent national figures interviewed throughout the years have included former President Richard Nixon, U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice William Rehnquist, Senator Paul Simon, President Truman's biographer David McCulloch, Russian scholar Robert Massie, Washington Post Correspondent Lou Cannon, New York Times Columnist Anthony Lewis, Librarian of Congress James Billington.

Upcoming on-air schedule is as follows:

- * Sunday, March 7, at 8:00 PM/ET (5:00 PM/PT)--"Booknotes" will talk with Alex Dragnich about his book "Serbs & Croats: The Struggle in Yugoslavia."
- * Sunday, March 14, 8:00-9:00 PM/ET (5:00-6:00 PM/PT)--"Booknotes" will interview Paul Kennedy about his most recent work, "Preparing for the Twenty-First Century."

C-SPAN is available in 58.7 million households nationwide and around the world via satellite. C-SPAN is funded entirely by America's cable television companies as a public service.
