Dear Sirs:

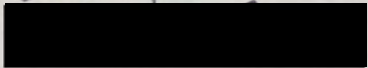

I have been an independent voter most of my days. I take offense at your repeated statements as to your objectivity and fairness. 'Tis not so!

Anyone with an open mind soon realizes that over 80% of your callers are extremely biased. Moreover, they are rigidly bound to a point of view, generally pro-Conservative. If I were to present you with 100 viewers, with only one of those with a negative point of view, in the "interests" of "objectivity", your journalists would push the one negative view with the same fervor as the other 99.

I would like to see you announce rather frequently the bias of the callers and have the journalists state their bias (conservative vs liberal). Your station is probably largely responsible for the defeat of both the Crime Bill and the Health Bills. You never describe the basis of many claims against liberal ideas. Instead, you rigorously defend your "objectivity". This is a ploy! No journalists lack opinions or the ability to hold to them. This sounds to me like pure hypocrisy rather like the situation they ascribe to politicians

C.S. Fox is doing more than Limbough to destroy the fairness of our society than any other agency. I do understand that you are paid for by the cable companies!
One also understands that your journalists are hired by large media empires. Is this democracy?

Sincerely

P.S. Think of the difference in wealth of those who own a fax machine as opposed to the general population.
