Dear Sam:

I personally get up early to watch C Span Washington Journal. And once again I must write to C Span production hoping Mr Lamb would just once ask someone from that "glorious" Eastern Establishment a serious question. Right now he's trying to defend to a caller about some stupid poll that the American people aren't interested in the Senate Campaign hearings. We'll like the caller say we don't get get to see or read about it. The media completely ignores it and now he's holding up the poll again and asking why the citizens aren't interested to the liberal, Mr Hertzberg (The New Yorker). Now let's get real. It is not covered.

 And Lamb says remember we ^(c spin) carry it after the house is out etc. Well most of us can't stay up until 2AM as we do have a life!! Except we can sneak in Fox now if it fits in our schedule ^{during the day}. But what really irritates me is Mr Hertzberg laughed and made two remarks about Senator Jesse Helms as

an old 75 year old, "out of step" old man - Well you inform Mr Lamb if it was anyone else he would of turned to Mr Hertzberg and politely said, Age is not something we're discussing but not to the New Yorker man. My husband ^{now} at 74 1/2 was with the National Staff of Am. Red Cross for 45 years and now volunteers to manage Disaster Centers during floods & other Disasters and fills in as supervisor in other capacities.

This is because he's smart, dependable, honest, knows his business etc. So I don't consider him old ^{and neither do I} and ^{higher staff in} the was a Terrible thing to let pass by Mr Lamb just to keep that silly for Eastern establishment & Editor Thrupp. We've lived all over the world and news for Mr Lamb were all quite smart this side Chicago of that area. Signed
