Dear Brian,

I have followed your career with interest the past 15 years. What a great job you've done!

Now I'm looking forward to reading Booknotes. Enclosed is our paper's review.

Last spring the paper had a marvelous full page coverage of you and your career. I would have sent it to you (did you see it? [South Bend Tribune]), but first I sent it to my daughter (at Purdue) to read. She thought it was packing material and threw it away!

I have meant to contact you for a long time as I think you might find my step-sister good interview material. She's very intelligent, articulate, works for the Pentagon in the capacity (I think) of watchdog for the handicapped.

She was injured at age 26 and is now
a quadriplegic ^(sp) thus the job.

Her name is [REDACTED] and her work number is [REDACTED] I'm not sure of the area code as I call her at home. For you, I think this might be worth pursuing.

As I'm unsure that you'll remember me, I won't fill you in on my life. But it's been fun following yours!

My best to you -
Sincerely

[REDACTED]
