Dear Bruce, cc: S. Trakern / Dec. 7-'91

In your interview with Sen. Gore, Sr., you asked about "The American First" movement. I represented the "isolationists" completely - There were strong Senators who were "isolationists" - Senator Alf of N. Dak. comes to mind - Charles A. Lindbergh was a national speaker for the "American First" group. My Dad & I heard Lindbergh speak, eloquently at our army in July, 1941 - Feeling was strong not to get into the European War - When Pearl Harbor occurred - feeling changed - Americans were anxious to get involved to fight the Japanese & the Nazis - thing changed - Mr. Mr. [redacted] -
