

IS THERE ANY WAY TO GET COPIES OF THE TAPES OF THE 2 AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL INTER-
* VIEWS YOU DID [REDACTED] ON R. PEROT WHEN HE FIRST EMERGED ON THE SCENE, BRIAN?

Dear Brian Lamb - I am a very sincere admirer of you, your work, and C-Span. I'm also a very devoted follower of Ross Perot and MRWA.
(There are many reasons: I think he is a genius who has diagnosed America's problem: emotional immaturity and has assumed
a role of the benevolent father exhorting his children to look at their short comings realistically
and assume the responsibility
for their correction themselves - instead of blaming others. I believe him to be sincere,
truthful, wonderfully generous
and loving of his fellow American.
He is not a politician. He means what he says. He is an American folk hero and will go down in history for what he has done for his Country.)

It is not surprising that the establishment media, the establishment forces, are really trying everything they can conjure up to destroy him. He is a real threat because we, the people, see him as one of us.

What Lin is hoping is someone will come forward and talk about him who really knows. Most of it is conjecture, hype, spin, hostility - lack of perception.

Will your book review on January 16 be on a book that is written by someone who is knowledgeable, perceptive? - or just another establishment-piece to destroy me. Perot? ^{those attacks}

Of course, they alienate me, and my UWSA fellow members. They have the opposite effect - but I am tired of the viciousness.

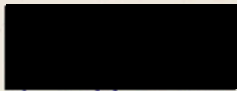

Sincerely -

[REDACTED] Ed. W.
