Dear Mr. Lamb,

I very much enjoyed your appearance on the Imus show the other morning, and I look forward to reading your latest book about the Presidents' grave sites. In talking about the libraries, I thought you mentioned that, unlike the others, the Nixon library is not publicly supported.

I have a recollection of reading or hearing not too long ago that the National Park Service had finally decided to be a sponsor of the Nixon library as it is with the others. I wonder if you are able to tell me if my recollection is correct. In any event, as soon as I am able to obtain your book, I would like to send it to you with a self-addressed, stamped envelope in the hopes you might personalize it for me. "Booknotes" remains my favorite program on the air.
