Dear Brian,

Many thanks for the outstanding American writers series, and particularly for the session on Thomas Paine.

My husband admires him above all American patriots and feels he has been very under-esteemed by our → history writers.

We made a "pilgrimage" to New Rochelle, NY a couple of years ago, learned of and travelled to NY to meet [REDACTED] but we had no idea of the holdings of the Philosophical Society. Moral thanks!
