Sir / Madam,
Your coverage of the funeral proceedings this evening was truly beautiful and meaningful. I was and am impressed and moved. —
However, I would like to express my strong objection to the factless words and most insensitive remarks of the first syndicated journalist, J. Witcover.

How disrespectful can one be at such a moment?
Had he put forward his thoughts in his written columns, he would certainly have been justified, but on world wide television, whether you are a friend or foe of the deceased president — this was a desecration.

Sincerely,

P.S. This is the first time I wrote to a station.
