I watch C-Span because it is filled with programs which are forthright, unbiased and completely honest.

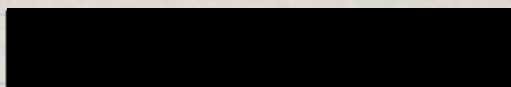

C-Span viewing is a must for me. I need to get as many pros and cons of pertinent, current and relevant aspects of democracy in action in order to help me make intelligent and consequential decisions.

I watch C-Span to see and hear from primary sources (in all forums formal and informal) what ails our society, what aids our society and what forces have to say and are doing to keep our nation strong, secure, resourceful and committed at home and abroad.

I especially enjoy the call in programs, hearings, reports and interviews.

The reporters, announcers and moderators have always displayed a thorough, in depth knowledge. They are a credit to their professions

Keep up the excellent work.
