C. Span
Washington, D.C.
Dear Sir,

I watch C-Span because it constantly reaffirms my beliefs in the power of the "Common" man.

I am a naturalized American citizen. My parents fled Russian programs at the turn of the century.

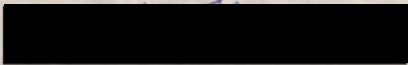

To watch Congress in action on C-Span means that I have the right as an individual, regardless of gender, religion, occupation, social standing to "participate" in the government of my adopted country. I sincerely hope that the Senate will soon be on C-Span.

C-Span educates the uneducated, invites our participation (via phone calls) to truly be an American citizen in thought, voice, action.

I deem it a privilege, unlike any other, in this or any place where television is available, to take part in our government.

I salute C. Span and the excellent job it does for us,
American citizens.
