Sirs:

We watched the special orders of the House on May 26, 1993, and the following Rules Committee Meeting.

It was clear to us that the Democrat members of the committee were there to defeat, not debate, all motions.

We were appalled at the arrogance of Rep. Derrick Butler, of South Carolina, who played the dictator, rather than the moderator. He considered his facts the only ones.

For a deliberative body, this committee was a farce.

This was tyranny of the majority.

Thank you so much for providing impartial coverage.

Sincerely,
