

9/24

Dear Siri:

I watch Washington Journal most mornings (Saturday's commentator is rather biased) & feel as many callers do "Thank you for C-Span" (I've given up completely on the 3 networks)

Today I had to turn off the re-run of PBS's Jim Lehrer interview (soft pap) with The President. He can lie with such a straight face it is unbelievable. Re-running that interview is free political advertising. It breaks my heart to see you do this.

Also may I ask that you shorten your Viewer Comment lines menu since it costs long distance caller a lot before leaving their message. This telephone "service" is irritating whenever it is counter by a customer.

Brian Lamb is your best asset & I wish he could work 24 hrs a day!! Please keep Lehrer off C-Span Thanks!

O.WJ
