Re: American Law:
Lucas vs. South Carolina Coastal Council

Dear Sir or Madam:

I was fortunate to catch your comprehensive coverage of the various protagonists in the Lucas Case argued before the U.S. Supreme Court last week. Bravo!

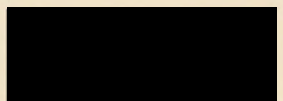

Rarely does the media distinguish itself in legal reporting as effectively as you have in this series, and not often are the issues reveled so cogently. Even your choice not to edit the post-argument footage on the steps of the Supreme Court allowed the story an authenticity and charm that has earned your program a place on my regular viewing calendar.

If you can direct me to additional sources of information for the Lucas Case, I would greatly appreciate it. SASE enclosed. Thanks again.

Very truly yours,
