Dear Mr. Lamb,

I am writing to you regarding the most gratuitous and hateful comments of Ann Coulter, particularly her reference to our president as a "cheap pervert." (My apologies to you, incidentally, as I regard you as a most worthy broadcaster whom I thoroughly enjoy and respect.) I listened to Miss Coulter's rather wild and fanatic partisanship with some fascination as this is the first time I was exposed to her for so long a span. However the degree to which she allows her venom to permeate her behavior goes beyond my idea of First Amendment privilege and I am profoundly sickened by her and her cohorts. If she continues to be welcome on C-Span I will, with great reluctance, have to avoid viewing the channel entirely.

Again, I regret to have to target you with my outrage as I have great praise for your achievements, and am dedicated to "Booknotes." You are an exceptional interviewer. Please respond.

P.S. This is regarding
Washington Journal 6/8.

Sincerely yours,
[REDACTED]
